

Verification of Pet/Animal Expenses

All items that are considered necessary for the health and well-being is allowed. HUD is vague on this but toys and clothing for the animal are not allowed.

The tenant must show proof by receipt of paid items and should be clearly marked what it is for. If it is questionable and the item is not clearly defined or able to be looked up, it may not be used as an expense.